

I am against this proposal. If I where to generate this same kind of interference you shut me down. Please protect our ham bands and don't allow BPL under the current specifications.